FACILITATOR SPOTLIGHT

Sasi KUMAR started in the Adventure Learning industry in 2009. He holds a Diploma in Outdoor & Adventure Learning and has gained much exposure from youth development and corporate organizations. His desire for continuous learning and passion in this industry propels him to drive corporate programs and share similar perspectives with others. He has worked with various organizations, including schools, private and public institutes, MNCs, and SMEs.

His biggest motivation in this industry is the participants. Seeing participants enjoying themselves, picking up new knowledge, and applying it back to the workplace gives Sasi a great sense of satisfaction.

Sasi is now focusing on growing businesses in the outdoor and adventure industry and building a stronger foundation in the backbone of the sector – Facilitation.
