
How to turn challenging government meetings into productive collaborations

Have you ever been in a public sector meeting where regulations, politics, or competing interests made it impossible to get anything done? It can feel like a maze, but it doesn't have to be.

The best decisions come from fairness, transparency, and collaboration. The trick is knowing how to get there.

On October 29, 2025, at 4:00 PM EST, join two of the most experienced facilitators in the business, Sheryl Trent and Dave Treshansky, for an interactive webinar. They'll share proven techniques from their decades of experience working with local, state, and federal governments.

You'll learn how to:

- Work effectively within legal and regulatory frameworks
- Address and defuse hidden agendas
- Manage open meetings and sunshine law requirements
- Build lasting consensus

This session is for anyone involved in government processes—public officials, consultants, or stakeholders. It's your chance to learn how to turn challenging meetings into productive, future-focused collaborations.

Warmly,
The INIFAC Team
